

Paul E. Atkinson

Recent papers and publications

Groupe d'Economie Mondiale de Sciences Po Policy Briefs

“The Basel Capital Adequacy Framework Should Be Reconsidered”, October 2008.

“Mobilizing Retired People in Ageing Societies on a Voluntary Basis”, December 2006.

“Taking Advantage of the Non-profit Sector’s Potential: Policy Priorities”, September 2006.

“Emerging on the European Policy Radar: the Voluntary Sector”, April 2006.

Papers jointly authored

“Surveillance by International Institutions: Lessons from the Global Financial and Economic Crisis”, OECD Economics Department Working Paper No.860, May 2011 (with Kumiharu Shigehara). www.oecd.org/economics.

“What will Basel III Achieve?” prepared for the German Marshall Fund of the United States, Washington DC, November 2010 (with Adrian Blundell-Wignall).

“Thinking beyond Basel III: Necessary Solutions for Capital and Liquidity”, Financial Market Trends, OECD, Paris, 2010 (with Adrian Blundell-Wignall)

“Origins of the financial crisis and requirements for reform”, Journal of Asian Economics, 2009 (doi 10.1016/j.asieco.2009.07.009) (with Adrian Blundell-Wignall).

“Dealing with the Financial Crisis and Thinking About the Exit Strategy”, Financial Market Trends, OECD, Paris, 2009 (with Adrian Blundell-Wignall and Se Hoon Lee)

“The Current Financial Crisis: Causes and Policy Issues”, Financial Market Trends, OECD, Paris, 2008 (with Adrian Blundell-Wignall and Se Hoon Lee).

“The Sub-prime Crisis: Causal Distortions and Regulatory Reform”, in Bloxham, Paul and Christopher Kent, Lessons from the Financial Turmoil of 2007 and 2008, Reserve Bank of Australia, Sydney, 2008 (with Adrian Blundell-Wignall).